

CFPB.014

SYSTEM NAME:

Direct Registration and User Management System

SYSTEM LOCATION:

Bureau of Consumer Financial Protection, 1700 G Street NW., Washington, DC 20552.

CATEGORIES OF INDIVIDUALS COVERED BY THE SYSTEM:

Categories of individuals covered by this system include all persons who are authorized to access Bureau information technology resources, including without limitation: (1) Employees, contractors, and any lawfully designated representatives of Federal, State, territorial, tribal, or local government agencies or entities, in furtherance of the Bureau's mission; (2) individuals who have business with the Bureau and who have provided personal information in order to facilitate access to Bureau information technology resources; and (3) individuals who are points of contact provided for government business, operations, or programs, and the individuals they list as emergency or other contacts.

CATEGORIES OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

Records in this system may contain data relating to individuals, including but not limited to: name; business and affiliations, including verification of affiliation; facility; positions held; telephone numbers, including business and cellular, home numbers, and numbers where individuals can be reached while on travel or otherwise away from the office; level of access; home or other provided address for the receipt of issued IT equipment or resources; email addresses of senders and recipients; records of access to Bureau or Treasury computers and networks including equipment issued, used ID and passwords, date(s) and time(s) of access, IP address of access, logs of internet activity and records on the authentication of the access request; records of identity management related to individual user's request including universal resource locator of individual's chosen identity assurance certificate provider and response from certificate provider of positive or negative authentication; and positions or titles of contacts, their business or organizational affiliations, and other contact information provided to the Bureau that is derived from other sources to facilitate authorized access to Bureau Information Technology resources.

The information in this system includes information relating to system access and does not include the data held within the systems or information technology resources to which access or interaction is sought.

AUTHORITY FOR MAINTENANCE OF THE SYSTEM:

Public Law 111-203, Title X, Section 1012, codified at 12 U.S.C. 5492.

PURPOSE(S):

The information in the system is being collected to enable the Bureau to provide authorized individuals access to Bureau information technology resources.

The system enables the Bureau to maintain: account information required for approved access to information technology; lists of individuals seeking or receiving access to Bureau information technology or equipment; lists of individuals who are appropriate organizational points of contact; and lists of individuals who are emergency points of contact. The system will also enable the Bureau to provide individuals access to certain programs and meeting attendance and where appropriate allow for sharing of information between individuals in the same operational program to facilitate collaboration. The information will also be used for administrative purposes to ensure quality control, performance, and improving management processes.

ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND THE PURPOSES OF SUCH USES:

These records may be disclosed, consistent with the Bureau's Disclosure of Records and Information Rules, promulgated at 12 CFR 1070 et seq., to:

- (1) Appropriate agencies, entities, and persons when (a) the Bureau suspects or has confirmed that there has been a breach of the system of records; (b) the Bureau has determined that as a result of the suspected or confirmed breach there is a risk of harm to individuals, the Bureau (including its information systems, programs, and operations), the Federal Government, or national security; and (c) the disclosure made to such agencies, entities, and persons is reasonably necessary to assist in connection with the Bureau's efforts to respond to the suspected or confirmed breach or to prevent, minimize, or remedy such harm;
- (2) Another Federal agency or Federal entity, when the Bureau determines that information from this system of records is reasonably necessary to assist the recipient agency or entity in (a) responding to a suspected or confirmed breach or (b) preventing, minimizing, or remedying the risk of harm to individuals, the recipient agency or entity (including its information systems, programs, and operations), the Federal Government, or national security, resulting from a suspected or confirmed breach.
- (3) Another federal or state agency to (a) permit a decision as to access, amendment or correction of records to be made in consultation with or by that agency, or (b) verify the identity of an individual or the accuracy of information submitted by an individual who has requested access to or amendment or correction of records;

- (4) The Office of the President in response to an inquiry from that office made at the request of the subject of a record or a third party on that person's behalf;
- (5) Congressional offices in response to an inquiry made at the request of the individual to whom the record pertains;
- (6) Contractors, agents, or other authorized individuals performing work on a contract, service, cooperative agreement, job, or other activity on behalf of the Bureau or Federal Government and who have a need to access the information in the performance of their duties or activities;
- (7) The U.S. Department of Justice ("DOJ") for its use in providing legal advice to the Bureau or in representing the Bureau in a proceeding before a court, adjudicative body, or other administrative body, where the use of such information by the DOJ is deemed by the Bureau to be relevant and necessary to the advice or proceeding, and in the case of a proceeding, such proceeding names as a party in interest:
 - (a) The Bureau;
 - (b) Any employee of the Bureau in his or her official capacity;
 - (c) Any employee of the Bureau in his or her individual capacity where DOJ has agreed to represent the employee; or
 - (d) The United States, where the Bureau determines that litigation is likely to affect the Bureau or any of its components;
- (8) A grand jury pursuant either to a federal or state grand jury subpoena, or to a prosecution request that such record be released for the purpose of its introduction to a grand jury, where the subpoena or request has been specifically approved by a court. In those cases where the Federal Government is not a party to the proceeding, records may be disclosed if a subpoena has been signed by a judge;
- (9) A court, magistrate, or administrative tribunal in the course of an administrative proceeding or judicial proceeding, including disclosures to opposing counsel or witnesses (including expert witnesses) in the course of discovery or other pre-hearing exchanges of information, litigation, or settlement negotiations, where relevant or potentially relevant to a proceeding, or in connection with criminal law proceedings;
- (10) Appropriate federal, state, local, foreign, tribal, or self-regulatory organizations or agencies responsible for investigating, prosecuting, enforcing, implementing, issuing, or carrying out a statute, rule, regulation, order, policy, or license if the information may be relevant to a potential violation of civil or criminal law, rule, regulation, order, policy, or license;
